OUR STORY

Southern Tier Brewing Company was founded in 2002 just down the road in Lakewood, NY. Founders Phin DeMink, Sara DeMink, and Allen "Skip" Yahn had a vision of reviving small batch brewing to a region rich in brewing tradition. Over the years, Southern Tier became known for making world-class hoppy ales and decadent dessert beers. But what many folks know us for is the experience they have when visiting our brewery. Here at STBC Buffalo, you can expect the full Southern Tier experience.

We take our food as seriously as we do our beer. Our craft kitchen aims to pair each chef created dish, from sweet to savory, with our handcraft brews. Speaking of brews - of the 30+ taps in house, we'll have a few on from our friends and partners at Bold Rock Hard Cider, Victory Brewing Company, and Sixpoint Brewery. So, while you're here sipping on a Southern Tier 2XIPA or an exclusive taproom brew, expand your craft palate with one of our wide variety of offerings from ciders to cocktails and everything in between.

STBC Buffalo is our 4th taproom location in the region. You can visit our other locations at our original brewery location in Lakewood as well as our taprooms in Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

Whether you're from near or far, a new friend or a longtime supporter, prefer lagers or ales...thanks for visiting us today. We hope you'll stop in again sometime soon. Who knows what we'll brew up next...

Cheers!
